PREAMBLE

The Democratic Party of Arkansas holds to these principles:

That the Democratic Party with its great diversity of members, its flexibility of organization, its historic adaptability to fruitful change, and its instinctive responsiveness to human needs and aspirations, can thus provide the leadership which we must have in these challenging times. We must join together with a renewed faith in our country, our state, and our Party to provide our people with responsive and responsible government.

That government functions best when it is closest to the people.

That government is of laws and not of persons. We condemn any resolution of conflicts save through legal processes. The Democratic Party of Arkansas stands for law and order with justice.

That every individual, no matter what religion or race, or how humble or exalted one’s origin, owes the duty to participate fully at every level of government and is entitled to an equal voice and equal treatment at its hands; that all Democrats are bound to defend, protect and honor our nation, our state and our Party; that when they are right, it is our privilege to sustain them; that when they err, it is our duty to correct them.

That as Democrats, we are proud and upright Americans; that we are determined not only to serve the United States but also to stand shoulder to shoulder with those of our sister states in giving meaningful, responsible and constructive leadership such as benefits a great nation.

(2) Convention certification. Within seven (7) days of the County Convention, the Chair and Secretary of the County Convention shall certify the names of the county’s State Committee representatives and State Convention delegates.

Section 2.07 County Review Committee.

(a) Review. The County Review Committee is responsible for ensuring compliance with the reporting process, developing required reporting forms, and facilitating the training of County Committee officers about the certification process. Upon reviewing reports, the County Review Committee shall categorize County Committees as follows:

(1) Compliant: the County Committee has submitted all reports and complies with the requirements of these Rules, state law, and the County Review Committee.

(2) Conditionally Compliant: the County Committee has minor deficiencies but complies generally with the substance of these Rules, state law, and the County Review Committee’s requirements and has agreed to a plan to reach full compliance.

(3) Non-compliant: the County Committee is deficient in some material respect and therefore does not meet the requirements of these Rules, state law, or the County Review Committee. The State Committee representatives from a non-compliant County Committee may be suspended and access to Party services may be restricted. Upon notification by certified mail, a non-compliant County Committee shall have thirty (30) days to schedule a consultation with the County Review Committee to identify the actions necessary to maintain their certification.
(b) Certification. Certified County Committees maintain their certification by submitting the regular reports outlined in this Article. In a county where no County Committee is certified, a new certification may be issued by the County Review Committee upon the submission of:

1. A complete roster containing the full name, voting address, mailing address, email address, and phone number of twenty (20) County Committee members;
2. The title, date of election, full name, voting address, mailing address, email address, and phone number of each County Committee officer and State Committee representative;
3. An up-to-date copy of the County Committee’s bylaws or, if the County Committee has not adopted bylaws, a statement to that effect;
4. A copy of a county political party committee registration form which has been properly filed with the Secretary of State; and
5. Minutes from an organizing meeting of the County Committee proving the proper election of officers and State Committee members and the adoption of bylaws, if relevant.

(c) Decertification. The County Review Committee may recommend to the Executive Committee that a non-compliant County Committee which fails to schedule a consultation or achieve meaningful progress toward compliance be decertified. The Executive Committee, after verifying the County Review Committee’s recommendation, may vote to decertify the County Committee. Upon decertification, the officers of the Democratic Party of Arkansas shall:

1. Notify County Committee officers of decertification and their removal from their positions by certified mail;
2. Freeze or transfer to the Democratic Party of Arkansas all assets of the County Committee, including accounts, funds, records, and property;
3. Dissolve the County Committee; and
4. Appoint an Interim Chair to reconstitute and certify a new County Committee.

Section 2.08. Grievances.

(a) Jurisdiction. County Committees shall have original jurisdiction of contests or protests involving actions of respective county committees.

(b) Complaint. Notice of a contest, protest, appeal or grievance shall be in writing and shall be served by mail, proof of mailing supplied by the U.S. Postal Service shall be deemed as date of service, or hand delivered to the Chair of the County Committee within ten (10) days of the act or omission complained of by the aggrieved person(s). The day on which the act or omission occurred shall be counted as the first day in determining the ten (10) day period. Failure to provide timely notice may be grounds for dismissal of the grievance. However, a grievance, otherwise timely made to the State Committee may not be dismissed as untimely if the State Committee or Chair refers the grievance to a County Committee because jurisdiction lies there. The notice shall clearly set forth the facts giving rise to the grievance and shall describe the relief sought. The Chair may require the aggrieved person(s) to elaborate and/or clarify in writing any point raised in the notice.

(c) Hearing. The County Chair shall give notice to all committee members and the aggrieved party of a hearing that shall be held as soon as reasonable but no more than twenty-one (21) days from the date the County Chair received the notice of the grievance, unless otherwise agreed by the aggrieved party and the County Chair. The County Committee shall, by majority vote of those present and voting, adopt such rules of procedure which are consistent with these Rules and as are necessary to assist in the orderly conduct of the hearing.

(d) Judgement. The County Committee, after learning the evidence and affording all parties a full opportunity to be heard, shall deliberate and render judgment in the matter by a majority vote of those present and voting. At the request of the party to the proceeding, the Secretary of the County Committee shall provide a letter certifying the action of the committee. Nothing in this section limits a party’s right to file a new grievance under the provisions of Article IV.

ARTICLE III – STATE CONVENTION

Section 3.01. Time and Meeting of State Convention.

A State Convention shall be held within a reasonable time after the general primary, i.e.

several County Conventions forwarded to the Secretary of the Party. The Credentials Committee shall not include in its list of prepared delegates any delegate who was not properly chosen.

2) The committee on Convention Rules shall recommend permanent rules governing the Convention and recommend revisions in the Rules of the Party.

3) The committee on Platform and Resolutions shall write and recommend to the convention a Party platform for the November General Election. The draft platform shall be made available in electronic or written form no later than 30 days before the state convention.

(d) Such committees shall meet in advance of the convention at a time and place designated by the Chair of the State Committee, to consider all matters properly coming before such committees, and each after holding such public hearings, shall make a report in writing to the convention. The Chair of the State Committee shall give such publicity of the times and places of the committee meetings as shall be necessary to advise the public and press.

Section 3.03. State Convention Officers.

On the date and at the hour fixed, the convention shall be called to order by the Chair of the State Committee, who shall announce the temporary officers of the convention, including Chair, Secretary, parliamentarian, and such other officers as shall have been designated.

Section 3.04. State Convention Duties.

The duties of the State Convention shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

The delegates shall convene at the State Convention for the purpose of receiving, canvassing, and declaring the election results for United States, State and District offices and shall declare as the nominees those candidates who were unopposed or who received the majority of votes for each respective office, fill any vacancy in nomination as authorized by law and shall furnish to each successful nominee a certificate of nomination.

Section 3.05. Quadrennial Delegates.

The selection of delegates and alternate delegates shall be in conformity with the delegate selection plan, as approved by the Democratic National Committee, or its designee, and as adopted by the State Committee.
Section 3.06. Selection of Presidential Electors.

The nominees for Presidential Electors shall be selected in presidential election years as required by law and the rules of the Democratic National Committee. One elector shall be selected from each Congressional District and two electors shall be selected at-large. The Chair and Secretary shall certify the list of each elector chosen to the Secretary of State. Such certification of electors of President and Vice President shall be made to the Secretary of State within two (2) days after such State Convention. Should a vacancy occur in the choice of an elector, the vacancy may be filled by the State Executive Committee.

Section 3.07. State Convention Records.

The Secretary of the State Convention, upon completing the minutes of the convention, shall immediately turn over to the State Committee the minutes and all other records of the convention.

ARTICLE IV - STATE COMMITTEE

Section 4.01. Purpose.

At such meetings, the carrying out of all duties of the State Committee shall carry out all duties required by state law, Democratic National Committee rules, and these rules shall occur. The State Committee may also hear reports from the Executive Committee, standing and special committees, and auxiliaries of the State Party. The State Committee shall also take additional any action on Democratic Party of Arkansas policies not proscribed by statute or these rules. Finally, such State Committee meetings shall regularly be used as an opportunity for the training of the state’s party leaders to become more effective in carrying out the work of the party.

Section 4.02. Membership.

The State Committee shall be composed of:

(a) County Representatives. County Committee representation on the State Committee will consist of two hundred (200) members. Each County Committee will automatically receive two representatives who shall not identify as the same sex who may or may not be the Chair and/or Vice-Chair of the County Committee. Any other County Committee members are permitted to attend and speak in State Committee meetings as emphasized in Section 1.01 of these rules. The remaining fifty (50) positions will be apportioned to County Committees based on their county’s contribution to the statewide performance of the Democratic nominee for Governor in the preceding two (2) gubernatorial general elections. The method for apportionment is as follows:
For each county, the number of votes for the Democratic candidate in the last two gubernatorial elections shall be totaled. That number of votes will be divided by the total statewide Democratic gubernatorial vote in the two elections, multiplied by 50 (fifty), and then rounded to the nearest whole number (a fractional part of 0.5 or higher shall be rounded up, anything less than 0.5 shall be rounded down). This whole number is the number of extra representatives each county shall be apportioned, beyond the two members automatically apportioned to each county. There shall be gender balance for every two additional members apportioned to a county. Reapportionment will occur every four years, following a gubernatorial general election. That most recent electoral data will be factored in to the formula and utilized for the next election of State Committee members, set to occur in the next even-numbered year.

(b) Auxiliary Organizations. Auxiliary Organizations. Once an auxiliary successfully completes the chartering process, the organization is awarded four (4) State Committee members: the Chair/President, the First Vice Chair/First Vice President and two at-large members, gender balanced when appropriate or possible. No more than two of the four auxiliary representatives may come from the same county. The Chair/President and First Vice Chair/First Vice President’s length of terms on the State Committee lasts as long as their tenure as the leaders in said auxiliary. At-large members must be elected at least every two years. If the organization’s charter is revoked, its representatives are removed from the State Committee.

(c) Chair’s Appointees. The Chair of the State Committee may appoint ten (10) individuals to the State Committee for the purposes of ensuring gender balance and further enhancing diversity on the State Committee. In addition, the Chair of the State Committee may appoint four (4) individuals under the age of 23 to the State Committee for the purpose of ensuring youth representation. Terms will run concurrent with the DPA State Committee terms – two (2) years. Appointees may be reappointed when their term is over. If the Chair resigns or when the State Committee elects a new Chair, all previous appointees by the outgoing Chair are removed from the State Committee.

(d) Officers. Current officers of the party, as defined in Section 7.01, who are not otherwise members of the State Committee.

(e) State Elected Officials. All current Democratic legislators, statewide elected officials, and members of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives will automatically be members of the State Committee and be entitled to full privileges of committee membership if they are present at committee meetings. No proxies will be accepted from such members of the State Committee.

(f) Former Chairs. All former chairs of the State Committee shall automatically be recommended as members of the State Committee entitled to full privileges of committee membership if they are present at committee meetings. No proxies will be accepted from former Chairs.
Section 4.03. Terms of State Committee Members.

Terms of office for members of the State Committee shall commence at the conclusion of the regular State Convention and run two years until the beginning of the next regular State Convention.

Section 4.04. Vacancies in State Committee Membership.

All vacancies arising in the membership of the State Committee shall be filled in regular or special meetings by the county committee or auxiliary in which the vacancy occurs.

Section 4.05. State Committee Meetings.

(a) Regular Meetings. The full State Committee shall convene no less than three times per year with meetings held across the state to the greatest degree possible.

(b) Regional Meetings. Additional meeting(s) of the State Committee may take the form of regional meetings. The initial regions shall be established by the County Committee Review Committee with future districts established following each reapportionment. Such meetings shall be chaired by a party officer or another state committee member from the region named by the Chair. The purpose of such meetings will be to focus on the distinctive issues facing the Democratic Party of Arkansas in the region, to carry out additional training of party leaders, and to provide opportunities for elected officials and party leaders from the region to network.

(c) Special Meetings. Special meetings of the State Committee shall be called by the Chair at his or her discretion or upon the request of ten percent (10%) of the members.

(d) Notice. Notice of calls for meetings of the State Committee shall be sent via mail or electronically by the Secretary to each member of the State Committee at least ten (10) days before the dates of the meetings provided that in case of emergency, the Committee may be convened on three (3) days’ notice. The news media shall be informed thereof at the time of the calling of each meeting.

(e) Quorum. A quorum shall be thirty percent (30%) of the existing membership of the State Committee.

(f) Proxies. Proxy votes shall be permitted at meetings of the State Committee only as follows: (1) no member shall vote the proxy of more than one other member; (2) proxies shall be granted only when printed, dated, signed and filed with the Secretary by the commencement of a meeting; (3) no proxy shall be valid for more than one meeting; (4) the Secretary shall preserve said proxies for no less than one year past the term of the Committee, as part of the records of the State Committee.
(g) Attendance. A State Committee member elected pursuant to section 4.02(a) who misses three (3) or more meetings of either the State Committee or their County Committee shall be required upon notice to show good cause therefore or may be dismissed from the Committee by its vote. A State Committee member elected or appointed pursuant to sections 4.02(b) or (c) above who misses three (3) or more meetings shall be required upon notice to show good cause therefore or may be dismissed from the Committee by its vote.

Section 4.06. State Headquarters

To facilitate the work of the Democratic Organizations and so that Democratic records may be preserved for future reference, the State Committee shall maintain a Democratic State Office with such personnel as the Committee shall, from time to time, deem necessary. The office personnel shall perform such duties as shall be assigned by the State Committee or by the officers thereof. The compensation of personnel shall be prescribed by the Chairman and State Officers with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee.

Section 4.07. Notice of Grievances.

Notice of a contest, protest, appeal or grievance to the State Committee shall be in writing and shall be served by mail, proof of mailing supplied by the U.S. Postal Service shall be deemed as date of service or hand delivery to the Chair of the State Committee at the office of the Democratic Party of Arkansas within ten (10) days of the act or omission complained of by the aggrieved person(s). The State Chair shall send a copy of the notice of grievance to the chief officer of the body against/from which the grievance has been taken and to the members of the Executive Committee. Said chief officer may respond in writing to the notice of grievance. The day on which the act or omission occurred shall be counted as the first day in determining the ten (10) day period.
